

RELEASE DATE: MAY 5, 2009

Jack O & the Tennessee Tearjerkers The Disco Outlaw

1. Ditch Road
2. Against The Wall
3. Switchblade Comb
4. Make Your Mind Up
5. Sweet Thang
6. Crook For Your Look
7. Let Me Go!
8. Scratchy
9. Homesick Gypsy
10. Blood Bank Blues
11. Stop Stalling
12. Walk of Shame

FORMAT: LP/CD
CATALOG #: 45 GONE

Press: Kasey Price/2:30 Publicity
kasey@230publicity.com
404-580-6964

Radio: Tom Martin/AAM
tom@aaminc.com
211-924-3005

Distribution: Revolver, Matador,
Get Hip and directly from Goner

Goner Records
2152 Young Ave
Memphis, TN 38104
901-722-0095 (phone)
www.goner-records.com

Jack Yarber (aka Jack O) is an underground Memphis legend. With a band family tree that goes back to the early 80s with Corinth, Mississippi punks Johnny Vomit and the Dry Heaves and Memphis new wavers The End through ragged rockers the Compulsive Gamblers and the influential garage punk trio the Oblivians, Yarber knows no bounds - and, unlike many in his field - seems to get better with age. After putting a blender to Dan Penn, Dr. Feelgood, Marc Bolan and Ike Turner on his last five solo records, "The Disco Outlaw" is the happy result of his musical exploration and ambition: a focused album packed with bits and pieces of his past that flows seamlessly to create something entirely new. Is this the year Yarber finally gets his due?

"Arguably the finest rock talent Memphis has produced since Alex Chilton" - SPIN

GONER RECORDS